

THE DAWN COMES UP LIKE THUNDER

. . . the dawn of an all-out surge on Japan and her stolen empire. That's no small task . . . and its expense is tremendous. These figures below tell a volume . . . read them and reflect!

	Statute Miles
Hawaii to Tokyo.....	3,500
Guam to Tokyo.....	2,000
Manila to Tokyo.....	1,700

In invasion, from 5 to 10 tons of cargo, equipment, supplies must be landed for every soldier who hits the beach. These supplies include 700,000 different items from buttons, needles, and thread to tanks, planes and locomotives. The price of one ship of any classification is staggering . . . read this and reflect more!

Escort Carrier	$10,500,000
Destroyer	6,500,000
Amphibian Truck (duck).....	8,275

In the words of Joseph C. Grew, for 10 years our Ambassador to Japan and now Assistant Secretary of State: "The Japanese will not crack. They will pull in their belts another notch, reduce their rations from a bowl to a half bowl of rice, and fight to the end."
